- † Worship-Centered: with a blend of old and new, we offer a unique worship style.
- † Bible-Centered: When it comes to our scripture readings and our sermons, worshipers are encouraged to follow along with their pew bibles as we “dig together” into the Word of God.
- † Prayer-Centered: worshipers are encouraged to openly share their own prayer petitions. It is so inspiring to hear faithful prayers being lifted from worshipers of all ages, 3 to 93.
- † Visitor-Friendly: We encourage our worshipers to get involved! We welcome new faces and new ideas in all of the many ministries here at Faith!

Time of Worship after Pentecost

During worship, let God talk to you.

Be with your fellow worshiper.

We always follow the traditional order of worship. Our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutheran & Sacrament. Therefore, "God's Word" is held with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing community celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week. As we begin our worship, all are invited to "examine their hearts as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion." However, if parents prefer, small children are also welcome to the Lord's Table.

Today, we are reminded that we are all in need of healing; sometimes it's our bodies that need healing; sometimes it's our minds that need healing; sometimes it's a relationship with God that needs healing. If you wish to share a prayer, please do so. We are more than welcome.

1 Timothy 6:6-19

Godliness and contentment is a great gain. So says St. Paul to Timothy.

You can find any number of self-help books at Borders, or self-evaluation articles in magazines to help you measure your own sense of contentment, and they'll be happy to tell you how to do it, too. How to do it! Have you ever really tried to talk yourself into happiness or contentment? My experience is that it doesn't work.

St. Paul knows that because he knows where to find it, for contentment is not a do-it-yourself project; it isn't a self project. It is a lose yourself project.

Love of money (and we can read into that love of all the things money teaches us to want) leads us astray. Contentment lies down another path, where we will find it, not make it. It lies down the path of love for God, of faith and righteousness and endurance and gentleness and purity of life.

Contentment, like joy, is never found by looking for it. Actually, it finds us, as we seek to do good, to

Second Lesson: 1 Tim 1:1-14
Holy Gospel: Luke 18:18-31

Upcoming Activities

Children and Youth! Education hour Today...9:30—10:30am

Adults! Three options of Adult Bible Studies beginning TODAY...9:30-10:30 am.

Option #1: The Book of Acts

This course explores the exciting work of the Holy Spirit through the earliest Church, and its meaning for us today, covering a chapter a week with in-depth Bible Study. Led by Pastor Bruce in Sunrise Room 226. Today

Option #2: The Book of Genesis

The Book of Genesis is not only a record of "firsts" in Scripture, but it is the foundation upon which the rest of the Bible is based. The emphasis in Genesis on complete and total faith is the key to our perspective as Christians. Utilizing specific passages each week with related questions, discussion, and applications in an informal manner. Drop in anytime in this small group setting.

Led by John Benson in Room 232. Today

Option #3: The Christian Response to the Paranormal

There are things that happen around us every day, unexplainable and mysterious. Are they? Scripture has much to say about those things that fascinate, confuse and terrify. Come and learn what the Bible has to say about the paranormal.

Led by Mark Alexander in Sunset Room, 230. Today
